Arts Ambassador
Spring 2016

Mission & Purpose:
• To be professional representatives of the Office of the Arts to the Georgia Tech community
• To be liaisons between the Office of the Arts and Georgia Tech students
• To promote the arts on campus, increase awareness of campus arts, and develop of a more cohesive arts community
• To lead organized programs and initiatives to aid with the points mentioned above
• To represent student perspectives in the development process for campus-wide arts initiatives
• To increase student involvement with the Office of the Arts in events, community outreach, etc.

Core Values:
Growth, Awareness, Leadership, Diversity, FUN

Requirements:
• Completed 30 credit hours
• In good academic standing, and will maintain good academic standing to remain an ambassador
• Required weekly meetings
• Expected to actively participate in as many events (engagement activities or shows) that they can, to lead projects, and to contribute during meetings
• Volunteer at a certain number of Ferst Center events, initiatives we plan, etc.
• Time commitment: 2-4 hours per week
• Good communication skills and/or an interest in developing said skills.

Arts Ambassadors are:
• Educators: sharing knowledge about Office of the Arts and Arts @ Tech events through FASET tabling, Ferst Center events, and other events as they arise
• Communicators: relay the importance and value that the arts brings to the GT campus and community
• Innovators: We value diversity because it brings in multiple perspectives on how to better represent the Office of the Arts, creative events or workshops, etc. We love new ideas!
• Professionals: remaining professional in conduct and aware of attire when representing the Office of the Arts
• Leaders: creating a foundation for student ‘artists’ on campus and taking on initiatives to nurture and build the campus arts community